SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The book Raped Daughter, Then Mother is deemed objectionable under section 3(2) of the Act because it details in erotic and explicit language the brutal and repeated rapes of a mother and her daughter. The story presents these things as sexually arousing, both for the victims and for the reader. It therefore supports and tends to promote the use of violence and coercion to compel persons to submit to sexual conduct, and acts of torture and the infliction of extreme violence and extreme cruelty. It also supports and tends to promote the use of urine in association with degrading conduct and sexual conduct.
